Privacy Act Statement

The information on this form is collected pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 3323(b) and 5 CFR 930.201 et seq. The primary use of the information is to determine eligibility for reemployment as a SALJ. The information may be disclosed to appropriate Federal, State, or local agencies when relevant to civil, criminal, or regulatory investigations or prosecutions; in judicial or administrative proceedings; to congressional offices; and to Federal agencies for employment or security reasons. The routine uses that may be made of this information are in the system notice for the OPM/Central-6 system of records under the Privacy Act. Your Social Security Number (SSN) is requested under the authority of Executive Order 9397, which requires the SSN for the purpose of uniform, orderly administration of personnel records. Providing this information is voluntary, however, failure to provide the requested information will prevent processing of the application. The effect of not providing all other requested information will result in us not being able to process your application.

Public Burden Statement

We estimate the public reporting burden for this collection will vary from 15 to 25 minutes, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering data, and completing and reviewing the information. Send comments regarding the burden estimate or any other aspect of the collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to the U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM), Administrative Law Judge Program Office, ALJ Program Manager, Washington, DC 20415-7900. The OMB number, 3206-0248, is currently valid. OPM may not collect this information and you are not required to respond, unless this number is displayed. Do not send completed application forms to this address.

Reasonable Accommodation

Federal agencies must provide reasonable accommodation to applicants with disabilities where appropriate. Applicants requiring reasonable accommodation for any part of the hiring process should contact the appointing agency directly. Determinations on requests for reasonable accommodation will be made on a case-by-case basis.

The Federal Government is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
