Agency Responsibilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Order Federal Benefits Open Season materials; • Distribute materials to employees, and for FEHB – to temporary continuation of coverage (TCC) enrollees and spouse equity enrollees (FEDVIP does not have TCC or spouse equity coverage); and • Provide access to materials to ensure employees make informed decisions. You must ensure Federal Benefits Open Season materials reach your employees and field offices. TIP: Order enough materials to use all year to support new employees, benefit fairs, and ongoing employee needs.
Program Materials	2018 Federal Benefits Open Season FastFacts – Both the 2018 Federal Benefits Open Season is Coming! and What to Consider During the Federal Benefits Open Season provide snapshots of basic information on the upcoming Federal Benefits Open Season. We will post them at www.opm.gov/healthcare-insurance/fastfacts. Please distribute these to your employees. We may issue other FastFacts on topics relating to the Federal Benefits Programs throughout the year via the Benefitsinfo listserv. These FastFacts will also be available at www.opm.gov/healthcare-insurance/fastfacts. 2018 Federal Benefits Open Season Flyers and Banners – Remind your employees about the Federal Benefits Open Season by posting flyers and banners around the workplace. We have developed Federal Benefits Open Season flyers you can print for bulletin boards, hallways, and break rooms. We have also developed Federal Benefits Open Season banners you can print for entrances, lobbies, and large open spaces. We will also post them at www.opm.gov/openseason. Benefits Flyers – Educate your employees about the insurance benefits available to them with the Insurance Benefits Flyers. Perfect for bulletin boards and new employee orientation packets, Insurance Benefits Flyers summarize each benefit program on a single page. While these flyers provide useful information year-round, their information about FEHB, FEDVIP, and FSAFEDS will be particularly helpful to your employees during the Federal Benefits Open Season. We will also post them at www.opm.gov/healthcare-insurance. Save Money On... Flyers – These three flyers show your employees how FEHB, FEDVIP, and FSAFEDS work together to save them money on prescription drugs, eyeglasses, and orthodontia. We will also post them at www.opm.gov/healthcare-insurance.
